

After the lesson: five questions to ask

A few warm minutes of interest after each lesson can make the whole week of practice easier.

- 1 What did you learn today?
Let them explain it in their own words. Explaining it can help it stick.
- 2 What did your teacher say you did well?
Celebrate the small wins first.
- 3 What is the one thing to practise this week?
One clear focus is easier than a long list.
- 4 Can you show me the tricky bit?
Listen without fixing. Just being an audience is a big help.
- 5 How can I help you practise?
A reminder, a quiet room or a listener? Let them choose.

Your weekly summary in Music-Ready shows practice minutes and teacher feedback.

Music-Ready

music-ready.org | Free to print and share | Not affiliated with any exam board

Track practice free at music-ready.org

cut here

Music-Ready

For parents and carers

After the lesson: five questions to ask

A few warm minutes of interest after each lesson can make the whole week of practice easier.

- 1 What did you learn today?
Let them explain it in their own words. Explaining it can help it stick.
- 2 What did your teacher say you did well?
Celebrate the small wins first.
- 3 What is the one thing to practise this week?
One clear focus is easier than a long list.
- 4 Can you show me the tricky bit?
Listen without fixing. Just being an audience is a big help.
- 5 How can I help you practise?
A reminder, a quiet room or a listener? Let them choose.

Your weekly summary in Music-Ready shows practice minutes and teacher feedback.

Music-Ready

music-ready.org | Free to print and share | Not affiliated with any exam board

Track practice free at music-ready.org